Footlighters

The Footlighters is a group of students who meet with Mr. Green, their Adviser, every Wednesday after school. It is for those who are interested in dramatics. Footlighters offers an opportunity for self-expression and gives these students a chance to perform on stage in school assemblies.

Radio Club

Students interested in Amateur Radio and General Electronics have an opportunity to learn the necessary theory to qualify for an F.C.C. Ham Radio License. Practice sessions in receiving and sending Morse Code are also held. Participants are encouraged to experiment and build projects according to their particular interests. A receiver and transmitter are now being constructed so that we can go "on the air."

SEATED: Ricky Wolfson, Lewis James, Dan Sack, Mr. Lambert, Adviser. STANDING: Michael Slepian, John Schunak, Tom French, Peter Bronk, Steve Raiken.

French Club

The French Club is for any Eighth or Ninth Grader interested in furthering his knowledge of conversational French. The French Club meets once a month with their Adviser, Miss Shepelavey. The members of this club are taught various things concerning the country of France and are also taught how to better their speaking techniques.

SEATED: Susan Hamlin, Christine Niehaus, Carolyn Libront, Linda Libront, Miss Shepelavey, Adviser. STANDING: Douglas Jones.

Assembly Committee

The Assembly Committee is for Ninth Graders who are recommended by Eighth Grade teachers and who are chosen by the Adviser, Mr. Green. These students meet each day, 7th hour in the Stagecraft room and plan the assembly that is presented each week.

Mr. Green, Adviser; Virginia Zuzze, Dona Ritter, Rick Mallinson, Mark Winston. STANDING: Jeffrey Sandler, Donna Kirtland.

J.F. Kennedy Yorker Club

The John F. Kennedy Yorkers are members of the N.Y. State Junior Historical Society, a group organized to perpetuate our State's interesting past. This year's successful First Aid Kit Campaign enabled the J.F.K. Yorkers to journey to Rochester, site of the State Convention, and then to Cooperstown's memorable Museum.

Membership in the National Junior Honor Society is determined by an annual selection procedure in which the Faculty single out those individuals who merit this high honor. Character, scholarship, leadership, service and citizenship are the factors which are considered in making the membership selection.

The Society functions as a school service organization using the personnel of its membership to carry out the personal and school ideals of the club.

Mr. Anton Schwarzmuller serves as Faculty Adviser of the Honor Society.

Ray Goldsmith, Mr. Notter, Advisor; Richard Mathner.
