Membership in the National Junior Honor Society is determined by an annual selection procedure in which the Faculty single out those individuals who merit this high honor. Character, scholarship, leadership, service, and citizenship are the factors which are considered in making the membership selection.

The Society functions as a school service organization using the personnel of its membership to carry out the personal and school ideals of the club. Among their many activities this year were traveling to the O'Keefe Center in Toronto, making Easter baskets for the Crippled Children's Guild, presenting scholarship awards to several Seventh Grade students, and many other vital functions.

Mr. Anton Schwarzmuller serves as Faculty Adviser of the Honor Society.

RADIO CLUB

Anyone interested in either Amateur Radio or Electronics is welcome to join the Amherst Radio Club (A.R.C.). On Tuesdays after school you will find busy students learning the Electronics Theory, sending and receiving Morse Code or experimenting with electronic circuiting and test equipment.

Their Adviser, Mr. Lambert, helps these students strive for their Amateur Radio Licenses.

STAGE CREW

Five days a week, eight boys, under the supervision of Mr. Bernard Green, meet in the Stagecraft room. Each of these boys have jobs which help to make our stage activities efficient. Among these various jobs are: cleaning the stage, helping to make scenery, working the lights, curtains, and movies. They even come for special programs not concerning school. In these many ways they make our assemblies more enjoyable.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

Each spring, Eighth Grade Unified teachers select those students who are qualified both in good grades and good speech habits to compete for the chance of being a member of the Assembly Committee. From these students, Mr. Green selects six.

This group meets Seventh Hour everyday and plans the assembly for that week.

J.F.KENNEDY YORKER CLUB

The John F. Kennedy Yorker Club consists of forty Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth Graders, who meet twice a month, with their Adviser, Miss Lynne Schramm.

It is affiliated with the New York State Historical Society.

This years K.B. Yoyo game was very successful. Part of the proceeds were sent as a donation to the J. F. K. Library in Boston. Some is also being used for a trip to Cooperstown and in a project the group is working on.

8th GRADE MATH CLUB

This club is for any Eighth Grader who is interested in having fun with mathematics. Meetings are held every other week with Mrs. Lape as Adviser. The members learn mathematical games, tricks, and short-cuts.

FOOTLIGHTERS

In 1953, a group called the Footlighters was formed. Its members, ranging from eight in 1953 to over 25 members now, are those interested in dramatics. Mr. Bernard Green has been the Adviser through these 12 years. He offers the Footlighters an opportunity to express themselves on stage in school assemblies.

SKI

If you were to go out to the brightly-lighted Glenwood Acres on Thursday nights, you would see one hundred Ninth Graders and two skiing supervisors, Mr. Zachary Clements and Mr. Jerauld Adams having a lot of fun.

Some might be trying to warm their hands after going up the rope tow, having forgotten to put on their mittens, but others might be getting practice on their newly-acquired skills.

No matter how they spent their time, you can be sure they had a lot of fun.

JUNIOR JOURNAL

The Junior Journal is our school newspaper, issued approximately six times a year. Under the able leadership of Mr. Holder, the "junior journalists" scour the school for current news. Many times these school reporters go out into the local community to bring back news stories of interest to the student body.

All grades are represented on the staff which changes editorial leadership at the start of each school term.

CHEERLEADERS

Perhaps the most ambitious and spirited Junior High girls are those in cheer-leading.

After trying out in the fall of the Eighth Grade, the chosen girls practice every week, so that their cheers are almost to the point of perfection.

When the Freshman team plays other schools, the cheerleaders are right there to urge them on.

Ye Editor!

POLARIS

At last, here it is! After so many hectic moments, typing, re-typings, writings, and re-writings, we can finally proudly present our school with another year's Polaris.

We owe much to Mr. Robert Holder, our faithful Adviser, who has done so much to make this yearbook one to be long cherished by all.
