

THE WILL OF THE CLASS OF 1968

JUNE 1965

Rhonda Garliner and Beth Mitchell leave their contact lens insurance policy to Bill Davis.

Claudia Swenson leaves her broken ski to Laurie Steinmetz.

Ray Goldsmith leaves any unused Metrical to anyone which a big enough refrigerator.

Bob Gerlach leaves his math abilities to Mr. Aikens, who may need it.

Dr. Gorruso leaves the band 100 pistols As a hint.

Donna Pezzino leaves --- how does that grab ya?

Mark Goldfarb doesn't leave anything, but he'll be glad to sell any of his possessions if the price is right.

Pat Urbanek leaves her hair, whichever color it may be at the moment, to Mrs. Mc Comb.

Roslyn Schultz leaves for Erie County Tenn.

Rob Peterson leaves his golf clubs to Mr Hinckley.

Sue Diamond bespeaks an ever growing love.

Joe Borzillieri, Jeff Rausch, and Rich Johnston leave their extrovert club membership cards to Mr. Newman.

Margo Schriver leaves for bigger horizons at the high school.

John Maringer leaves his Raleigh coupons to Roswell Park Institute.

Alan Greer leaves his drums to Ringo Starr

Janice Frey leaves laughing hysterically, and also leaves the "boys in the lunch room" to Mr. Aikens.

Bill Ruof and Greg Nelson leave striking them all out.

Kris Bosworth has already left.

Leslie Becktoft leaves her agar plates to Mr. Ritz, along with a broken graduate.

Mr. Schwartzmueller's afternoon U. P. class leaves a piece of note-taking material to Herb Mc Crossin.

Joe Fried leaves his honor society meeting to attend detention.

Doozun and Beasley, better known as Sue Genrich and Bonnie Gullia, leave passing a basketball to Donna Russell, who, as usual, sinks it.

Bill Beverly leaves his pinky ring to anyone who can get it from Joanne Glaser.

Marcee Meyers, Ellen Mosler, and Bob Morehouse leave their No-Doz tables to the next occupants of their biology table.

Judo expert Mary Magoon leaves her ability to anyone who needs it as badly as her.

Ron Bronstein leaves his sun lamp behind.

Doug Parker might leave.

Nancy Carpenter leaves her hammers and nails.

Lora Spiller leaves her numerous well-known crushes to Debby Jaus.

Sue Thorp leaves the bookstore to Mary Lipsett, with compliments.

Doug Campbell leaves for New York....again?

Sharon Burstein leaves the ski slopes slightly damaged.

Shelly Stromberg and Bill Fudeman leave their homemade fudge and genuine shebunkin goldfish to Scott Davis.

Jack Beckstrand left his tan in Florida.

Nitza Farhi leaves on a neat safari.

Dwight Herman leaves his cigarettes to Ridgely Francisco.

Nancy Margulis leaves her hair cutting shears to Beauty By Bonne.

Steve Plaskin leaves his Martin guitar, heaven forbid!

Martha Kayser leaves her needle, string, and ice cubes to Vicki Greenfield.

Bob Bakert leaves his shotgun to Cam Ernst.

Mark Aldrich leaves his short sleeve shirts to anyone who happens to be dying of heat in the winter.

Jamie Rosen, Brian Levine, Carrie Steinhart, Jim Barth, Barbara Radel, Linda Lockey, and others leave the Jr. High School without French credits.

Terry Tersegno and Ronnie Cole leave seventh hour relieved.

Cary Vastola, Ton Zoratti, Ned Fisher, Mike Driscoll, Jim Ralston, Dan Emery, et. All leave dribbling.

Katie Hoechst leaves a month in advance to make sure no one makes any other plans.

Ann Mc Elligott and Kathy Hull leave two feet of hair to Mr. Ely.

Gerry Peters leaves hooked by Betty Kidawski, which a fishing rod and all.

Joe Gudelsky leaves on an all-girl bike-hike.

Christine Niehaus leaves Goldfinger to James Bond

Wendy Yellen leaves an “on” switch to the microphone during the variety show.

Sue Trabka leaves her sewing imagination to Mrs. Olson.

Amy Fuller, Bonnie Betz, and Eleanor Freeman leave signing.

Kathy Shulman leaves a copy of Ultraviolet Light Induced Mutations In the Bacterium Serratia Mercesceus concerning the Pigment (which didn't work) to the autoclave.

Jack Harmsen and Jenny Leonardo leave after almost two solid years.

Jack Herrmann, Chuck Scialfo, Paul Pukay, John Glattly, Greg Nelson, and Bill Beverly leave to go to Williamsville.

Sharon Brock leaves her “dots” games in her Unified desk for use during films.

Roeder Kinkel leaves Brenda Krull for at least a year.

Barbara Lightman and Marly Wexler leave their gym conversations to Laurie Cowan and Kathy Jessel.

Cheryl Maas leaves her aseptic bacteriological techniques to the bacteria, who thrive on them.

Dan Oved leaves his calloused phone-dialing fingers to Bob Whiting.

The Fifth Hour Study Hall Syndrome leaves a bushel of shelf pegs to Miss Carter.

Cindy Gath leaves arguing vehemently with Mr. Holder.

Larry Milstein leaves Claudia Swenson's back drenched.

Glenn Coppola leaves his own chair in Mr. Rouse's office to Tim Ward.

Donna Russel leaves her guitar lessons on time.

Jane Rix leaves without her parent's consent.

Betty Kidawski leaves her culottes and pert skirt at home, where they would be eventually.

Dianne Nelson leaves her ninth grade presidency to Randy Main.

Nikki Carter leaves her little liver pills.

Robin Palanker leaves her skateboard to Gary Lehman.

Mark Duane, Jane Sullivan, and Barb Brocato leave their brothers and sisters to the Chess Club.

Alan Bartczak leaves for religious instructions.

Tom Facklam and Ted Batt leave wearing their letter sweaters.

Carrie Steinhart, Laurie Steinmetz, Margo Schriver, Diane Morris, and the rest of the squad leave cheering their team on.

Duane Stamp leaves sixteen lunches in his locker.

Sue Hamlin and Debbie Malone leave strumming their guitars harmoniously.

Karen and Linda Poulton leave doubly.

Barb Jackier leaves effervescing with enthusiasm.

Phil Gallo leaves for the vineyard.

Pixie Hock leaves for Fennario with Joan Baez.

Jack Herrrmann leaves his cranberry pants to Roy Sanders, unless he already has a pair.

Jayne Shister leaves her tassel Weejuns to any future Seminary girl.

Linda Carey leaves for the Louvre.

Sue Berman leaves for the Bennett swim team.

Cathy Duke leaves her ballet slippers to Sandy Delphard.

Tom Kenney leaves six inches to Lawrence Stern.

Dick Clack leaves his shots to the head, ability to bounce quarters, Mr. Kiesel's stamp, his all-nite poker parties, his presidency of the Dictionary Club, and general playfulness to the Pentagon.

Stephanie Burgoyne and Donna Heintz leave their new diets to anyone looking for one.

Mickey Stern leaves his big words and long phrases to Rick Harmsen.

Alan Snitzer leaves his sense of humor, emcee to the Jeopardy quiz show, and good jokes to Miss Kilpela.

Doug Campbell leaves his Varsity track letter to Terry Gleason.

Kent Savage leaves his A average in electric shop to Lee Sengbusch.

Bob Evanson leaves his cut-off hair to Mr. Davis.

Mike Driscoll leaves his football cleats, basketball sneakers, baseball spikes and track shoes to Lamar "Benjie" Sanders.

Bill Joyce leaves a standing challenge to Joe Cosentino.

Dan Emery leaves a lightly damaged tennis racket to Shelly Stromberg.

Brian Brooks leaves his golf talent to Arnold Palmer.

Bonnie Brassel leaves noisily.

Nancy Abraham leaves her roller skates to anyone who patrols the Lebrun hill.

Jim Mc Kinley leaves the stage lights.... On!

Laurie Steinmetz leaves her skirts to Mrs. Olson.

Pat Downing leaves along with Chuck Keeler and his ping pong ball.

Kevin Boles leaves with a splash.

Linda Adler leaves her socks to Bonnie Doon.

Tim Elliott leaves 99 44/100% pure.

Herr Schaffhauser leaves his kimono to the next German teacher.

Mary Bassel leaves her French pronoun paper to Miss Shepalavey, suitable for framing.

Diane Crawford and Nikki Carter leave their E1 and C1 assigned seats in assembly committee to the next ninth graders.

Jerry Tokars leaves his bathing suit at the bottom of the senior high pool.

Ellen Mosler leaves Steve Pierson to Pam Miller

Leah Burrell leaves others in stitches.

Jerry Jacobbi leaves his hard working and ambitious nature to Pam Baker.

Mike Pines leaves Grant Golden's Spanish answers for next year.

Sharon Arbogast leaves quietly.

Todd Rubach leaves with a French accent.

Glenn Munson leaves the texts of his father's speeches to Ron Ungerer.

Ron Korman leaves his cut-off sweatshirt to Albie Marquart.

Roger Mehner leaves to join Sharon Barth.

Bob Lesser leaves his tennis racket to Mark Harty, who beats him all the time.

Kathy Findlay leaves the senior high boys to her sister, so as to keep it all in the family.

Ilene Rosenblat leaves the Dave Clark Five to Nancy Krull.

Dave Moynihan leaves one dead mouse to the cafeteria ladies, hoping they will utilize it as they see fit.

Jim Kreitner leaves his brother's liquor business to Jim Aker.

Doug Replogle leaves his backbone to Olga and Goetz, the frogs.

Alex Cornell leaves his gorgeous girlfriends to Temple Beth El.

Greg Bowen leaves to vote for Barb Copley.

And we just leave...quickly!

Respectfully submitted,

Sue Berman

Joe Gudelsky

Marcia Richtand

Leonard Dell'Amico

Sandy Burroughs

Richard Johnston

Ellen Mosler

Jayne Shister